Stock Market Tests '62 Low In Heavy Trade

By JACK LEFLER
AP Business News Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market slipped at the opening today, but quickly turned mixed with a number of good gainers. Trading was heavy and the tape was late.

Depending on which of several yardsticks was used, it was just above or just below the 1962 low point hit on May 28 in the steepest one-day fall since 1929.

Losses of several big volume stocks ranged from a few cents to $1 and more, although these were offset by increasing gains. Some issues traded unchanged in price in sizable blocks.

Wednesday's hectic up-and-down session shoved the market to its third sharp loss of the week.

The averages were at odds on whether a new 1962 low was reached.

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrials crumbled to new ground. The Associated Press average of 60 stocks held just above its previous low and Standard & Poor's 500-stock index closed at its May 28 level.

Brokers differ on what constitutes a low to be tested. On the Dow Jones average, for example, some say the May 28 closing at 576.93 is the level while others think it is the intraday bottom of 563.24 reached about noon May 29 before a tremendous rally developed. The average wound up Wednesday at 574.04.

The market was battered by two selling waves with the one near the close doing the most damage. In between there was a short-lived advance.

A broker commented that "a lot of people are just letting the selling burn itself out. Until they have clear signs that this has happened, they're not doing much buying."

Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon, in testimony before the Senate Finance Committee, repeated the administration's view that the decline—which has taken the market back to November 1960 levels—was due to unrealistically high levels attained in 1961.

He added that some investment advisers believe stock prices now have reached the right level in relation to share earnings—a multiple of about 15 times.

While stock prices continued to slump, the prices of seats on the New York Stock Exchange followed a parallel course.

A seat—which carries the right to trade on the floor of the exchange—was sold Wednesday for $115,000, down $10,000 from a sale Tuesday.

They were the lowest prices since 1959 and compared with a 1961 high of $225,000.

U.S. Sergeant Killed, 2 Wounded in Viet Clash

By MALCOLM W. BROWNE
SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — A U.S. Army sergeant has been killed and two other Americans wounded in a combat operation with Vietnamese troops near the Laotian frontier about 360 miles north of Saigon, a military spokesman said today.

The wounded, a captain and a sergeant reportedly not in serious condition, have been taken to a field hospital at Nha Trang, 200 miles northeast of Saigon.

Names of all three Americans were withheld until next of kin were notified.

THE ACTION, details of which were not disclosed, occurred in central Viet Nam's thick forests, where U.S. Army special forces are training local Vietnamese units to defend their villages against Viet Cong guerrillas who infest the area.

The sergeant is the fourth U.S. serviceman killed in combat since the United States increased its aid to President Ngo Dinh Diem's forces last December.

A large Vietnamese force airlifted by 30 U.S. helicopters swept a Red-infiltrated area 40 miles north of Saigon today, killing three Viet Cong and seizing a big Communist supply depot, a military source said.

One of the helicopters was forced down by engine trouble and destroyed by its crew. The crewmen reportedly were evacuated without any casualties.

Among the supplies captured were 25 tons of rice, more than 3,000 gallons of gasoline, two jeeps and a small truck.

The attack centered on an area called "D Zone" which the Communists claim to have taken over.

U.S., Russia Can't Agree On Next Step

GENEVA (AP) — The 11-nation disarmament conference starts a month-long summer recess today with the Soviet Union and the Western powers still deadlocked on all key issues after three months of negotiations.

Western delegates took a gloomy view of the first phase of the conference of Western, Communist and nonaligned nations.

"I feel the negotiations have not been entirely useless," said one diplomat, "but on substantial matters we have achieved absolutely nothing."

The Westerners were hopeful the conference at least had served to explain some of the complexities of world disarmament to the eight nonaligned nations who joined the East-West negotiations here last March.

The eight Brazil, Burma, Ethiopia, India, Mexico, Nigeria, Sweden and the United Arab Republic have no nuclear weapons, no large armies and no far-reaching military treaty obligations. Thus they had little concept of the problems that complete disarmament would pose for a major power.

The West and the Communist bloc appeared as far apart as ever on two key issues: international controls and an international police force to keep the peace in a disarmed world.

Both the United States and the Soviet Union advanced plans calling for effective verification of disarmament measures by international inspectors and for a watchdog force to replace national armies after disarmament.

The Western powers the United States, Britain, Canada and Italy claim the Soviet Union is paying only lip service to the two concepts.

They say Soviet control arrangements are watered down to prevent any reliable disarmament verification.

The West insists the Soviet version of a peace force would be virtually inoperative and too weak to protect any country from a potential aggressor secretly remaining in violation of a disarmament accord.

Wall Street Wizard Skips With $2 Million

By RAY KOHN
NEW YORK (AP) — Wall Street wizard Edward M. Gilbert, who has admitted unauthorized withdrawals of almost $2 million from the company he headed, has flown to extradition-proof Brazil. Gilbert stepped off a Varig Airlines jet in Rio de Janeiro Wednesday and went into seclusion.

Edward M. Gilbert
In Seclusion in Rio

In Rio, officials of the International Police Agency and the U.S. Embassy said they had received no information on Gilbert. It was reported, however, that Gilbert entered Brazil with a visa valid for 30 days and that if he wanted to stay longer he would have to apply for an extension.

At Idlewild Airport in New York, Gilbert bought a one-way ticket and said he might be staying in Rio "for about six weeks," the airline said.

Gilbert, 38, who rocketed to Wall Street fame four years ago when he practically "cornered" the stock of the E. L. Bruce Co. and became its president, made company check withdrawals amounting to $1,933,000 between May 28 through June 4. It was on May 28 that the stock market started its downward plunge.

What happened to the money has not been determined.

Manhattan Dist. Atty. Frank S. Hogan is looking into the withdrawals. Early Tuesday night the E. L. Bruce firm, a leading manufacturer of hardwood flooring, released a statement saying Gilbert voluntarily had disclosed the unauthorized withdrawals and that he had resigned.

The company quoted Gilbert as saying his actions were directed to "the protection of an acquisition program on behalf of the corporation and, in my judgment, were in the best interests of the corporation and its stockholders."

E. L. Bruce Jr., chairman of the company, ordered a complete audit of the firm's books. Bruce, saying the firm's checks, declined to say to whom the checks were payable or how long the audit would take. However, company officials said the firm is in good financial shape. They also said it has a surety bond totaling $750,000.

Deadlock in Airline Talks, Strike Feared

WASHINGTON (AP) — Negotiations to settle a long labor dispute between three major airlines and their flight engineers ended in deadlock today and Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg said the union is free to strike.

Goldberg left the unsuccessful talks to report to President Kennedy on the situation.

There was no immediate word on when the engineers' union might call a walkout on the three airlines — Pan American World Airways, Trans World Airlines and Eastern Airlines.

The breakdown followed a fruitless negotiating session that lasted more than 21 hours and ran through the night.

Goldberg said Kennedy had made a proposal to the airlines and the engineers' union last weekend to submit their job rights dispute and wages and other issues to voluntary arbitration.

"The President's proposal has been accepted by the companies but has been rejected by the Flight Engineers' Union," Goldberg said.

The labor secretary had sat in on the all-night session and joined in a final get-together after breakfast.

The deadlock developed after two years of negotiations between the Flight Engineers International Association and the three airlines over a wide range of differences — the main one being the status of flight engineers aboard jet aircraft when the airlines shift, as they say they must, from four-man to three-man crews.

Goldberg made public a statement given last Saturday to both sides urging arbitration of all issues. Kennedy urged acceptance of his proposal both in the interest of the public and the airlines and their employees.

"At the moment," Goldberg said as the meetings broke up, "as far as I'm concerned the talks are over and the union is free to strike."

Senate OKs Defense Bill

By EDWIN B. HAAKINSON
WASHINGTON (AP) — Unanimous Senate approval of a massive $48.5-billion defense bill moved the record peacetime appropriation back to the House today.

There, leaders were expected to send the bulky measure to the usual compromise session of a Senate-House Conference Committee.

The bill returns to the House with nearly $500 million in Senate increases over what the House originally voted. The differences must be resolved before the bill goes to President Kennedy.

Sen. A. Willis Robertson, D-Va., steered the big bill, carrying more than half the annual government budget, through the Senate in less than seven hours Wednesday. The vote for it was 88 to 0.

Most of the debate centered around futile attempts of Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois and Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., to cut out an extra $320 million voted by the Senate Appropriations Committee to hasten development of the big jet reconnaissance strike aircraft known as the B570.

Both senators were defeated by wide margins as they tried to slice $570 million back to the $171 million asked by President Kennedy and Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara to continue limited development of the huge experimental aircraft.

Air-minded senators backed the full $491 million asked by top Air Force leaders to develop a complete weapons system, including long-range radars, new missiles and other special subsystems.

During the debate Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., said Kennedy "told me Sunday that even if extra funds are voted" for the B570 he wouldn't spend them.

Robertson told the Senate, how-

'Man Named Andersen' Helps Boys Get Home

SEATTLE (AP) — Five Minnesota boys are on their way home on a passenger train, their troubles behind them thanks to a friend named Andersen.

The youngsters are Arnold Langmade, Jerry Schwartz and Mike Hamilton, all 17, Roger Cummins, 16, and Eldon Nahring, 18, all of St. Francis, Minn.

They were driving to the Seattle World's Fair last Saturday when their car's brakes failed. The car and a truck collided at Ellensburg, 10 miles east of here. The car was smashed beyond repair.

Eldon was cited for driving with defective equipment, and the boys spent almost all their cash paying the fine.

They came on to Seattle by bus, and a minister found them bed and board with Mr. and Mrs. Al Will, former residents of Cambridge, Minn. The boys went to the fair Monday, hoping to find work, but no jobs were to be had.

They had $15, enough to see them through Tuesday, Minnesota Day at the fair.

In desperation, they went to their governor, Elmer L. Andersen, who was officiating at ceremonies.

"They didn't ask for money or transportation, just for any idea I might have of what they could do," Andersen recalled. "I told them I would call them before flying back to Minnesota."

But the governor couldn't reach the boys before he flew home. Someone else did, though. A man from a railway station notified them there were five one-way tickets to St. Paul waiting for them. Said he:

"Somebody named Andersen came in and paid for them."

Grand Jury Hears Estes

By JERRY PILLARD
FRANKLIN, Tex. (AP) — Testimony from Billie Sol Estes opened new avenues for investigation in the mystery death of an Agriculture Department official, Dist. Atty. Bryan Russ said Wednesday night.

Russ said he will subpoena three or four additional witnesses before the Robertson County grand jury holds its next session Monday.

The grand jury is investigating the fatal shooting June 3, 1961, of Henry H. Marshall, 52, who was state chief of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee. They questioned Estes, erstwhile farm financier, for nearly two hours Wednesday.

None of his testimony was made public.

"From his testimony some new avenues have opened up that we have to go into," said Russ.

He declined to name the prospective witnesses.

Texas Atty. Gen. Will Wilson said jurors peppered Estes with questions at a rate of more than one a minute.

Wilson said Estes refused to answer about 100 questions on the ground of possible self-incrimination.

Because of the answers "and lack of them" from Estes, the attorney general said he would intensify his investigation of Estes' business affairs. Estes has been indicted on charges of fraud and theft linked to his multi-million-dollar sales of liquid fertilizer of St. Paul, Minn., and E. Estes' cotton, grain storage and fertilizer empire is in receivership.

Nelson to Call Legislature on Reapportioning

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — Gov. Gaylord Nelson said today he will call the Wisconsin legislature into special session, as asked by a panel of three federal judges at Milwaukee, to reapportion the state's political districts.

The panel asked the governor to issue the call within 10 days.

Judge F. Ryan Duffy of the Eighth Circuit Court of Appeals, told newsmen that if the suggestion were carried out, it should end litigation presently before the court.

"If it isn't," Duffy said, "we will proceed."

Other members of the panel were district judges Patrick T. Tone of Wausau and Kenneth P. Grubb of Milwaukee.

The judges announced denial of motions on behalf of Secretary of State Robert Zimmerman for dismissal of the suit before the 1962 elections.

17 Candidates File for Offices In Minnesota

ST. PAUL (AP) — Seventeen candidates filed for state offices Wednesday, the opening day, in Secretary of State Joseph Donovan's office.

All who filed are seeking non-partisan seats for the legislature, the state supreme court and district judge.

No one filed on either the Republican or Democratic Farmer-Labor tickets for the railroad and warehouse commission, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, auditor or treasurer.

Filing were:

State Senate — Fay George Child, Maynard; Robert Dunlap, Plainville; W. J. Franz, Mountain Lake; Vladimir Shipka, Grand Rapids; and Ernest J. Anderson, Frost, all incumbents; O. B. Augustson, Willmar; and Irven W. Anderson, Puposky.

House of Representatives — Sam Clayton, Barr, Ortonville, incumbent; Jorney general said he would intensify his investigation of Estes' business affairs. Estes has been indicted on charges of fraud and theft linked to his multi-million-dollar sales of liquid fertilizer of St. Paul, Minn., and E. Estes' cotton, grain storage and fertilizer empire is in receivership.

HAD OUTSIDE HELP

No Trace of Escapees

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The three convicts who fled Alcatraz Island prison in San Francisco Bay may have had outside help, it was reported today.

The San Francisco Examiner said it has learned from a reliable source that the FBI is working on the theory the three men made it over the cold, swirling waters to the mainland and is checking on recent visitors to the prison.

A widening search by government agents is strengthening speculation the three—John Anglin, 32, his brother, Clarence, 31, and Frank Morris, 35, may have escaped the first successful escape from the 29-year-old maximum security institution.

Since the disappearance was discovered early Tuesday, heavily armed soldiers, now numbering 200, have been combing Angel Island in the possibility the convicts may have landed there on a driftwood raft in their flight from Alcatraz 1 1/2 miles to the south. Alcatraz is 1/2 miles north of the San Francisco shoreline.

A fourth convict was reported in on the escape plot but didn't flee. He was identified as Allen Clayton West of Atlanta, Ga. The four used spoons to chisel loose ventilator covers leading to a service passage behind their cells.

BROADWAY ELM REMOVED . . . A contractor's crew, with a goodly amount of supervisory help, removes the root system of a giant elm on East Broadway between Laird and Vine streets. About half of the tree's roots were sheared off during the excavations for curbing and the tree was removed because residents

Curbing Project Slow on West End Of Broadway Job

New curbing on the nine-block east segment of the Broadway widening project will be completely installed within another week, according to estimates by the city engineer's office.

Construction on the west portion, however, is being slowed because plumbing crews have had some unexpected additional work in connection with moving water shut-off valves into place along the new curb line. Replacement of old water service to a number of residences has been necessary and this has caused plumbers to fall behind schedule, creating some delay all along the line, according to Marvin Nelson, project inspector.

Curbs for the six-block western part of the Broadway job, between Huff and Sioux streets, are expected to be in place in approximately three weeks, Nelson said. All storm sewers and catch basins have been built and stop boxes and hydrants for the east nine blocks of the project are in place, the inspector said.

Following curb installation, excavation will begin for resurfacing of the street. Soil will be excavated to a level of five inches below the curb and will be replaced by new base and bituminous surface.

All intersections will be rebuilt, with new curb and surfacing extending several feet into intersecting streets.

Probers Told Girls Forced to Fleece Customers

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate probes called for testimony today from police and the underworld concerning allegations that girl entertainers are forced for fear of their lives to fleece patrons of a crime syndicate's night clubs.

First, however, the Senate Investigations subcommittee was to hear the rest of the story of Joan Gansley, a blonde actress and dancer. She testified Wednesday that she and other performers were required to mix with customers and hustle drinks at night clubs employing her as a dancer.

The subcommittee is exploring the affairs of the American Guild of Variety Artists, an AFL-CIO affiliated union of entertainers. Chairman John L. McClellan, D-Ark., announced he was calling police officers from Chicago and neighboring Calumet City, Ill., and at least a couple of Chicago underworld figures, Jimmy (The Monk) Allegretti and Joey Aiuppa, in a planned long day of hearings.

William Scott, former special assistant U.S. attorney for the Northern Illinois District, testified Wednesday that exotic dancers and other girl entertainers were used as "B-girls" by a Chicago-ruled crime syndicate to "attract suckers" to syndicate-owned night clubs in the Calumet City area.

Scott pictured the girls as living in such "moral fear of their lives" they resist testifying in court about their experiences. "These entertainers," Scott said, "were forced to participate in such illegal activities as prostitution, B-drinking and pickpocketing."

"Members of this very well organized crime syndicate were engaged not only in gambling and vice, but in virtually every other conceivable type of criminal wrongdoing," Scott said. He pictured it as reaching far beyond Chicago, through ties with other criminal syndicates.

Scott ticked off the names of racketeers Tony Accardo, Leslie (Killer Kane) Kruse and Frank Laporte as involved in the club deal.

Scott said he had uncovered the club story in a 1959 investigation of Calumet City crime. In some cases, he said, the girls were beaten by bartenders.

Bicycle License Deadline June 30

All 1962 bicycle license plates must be purchased by June 30, Capt. Donald F. Berg, warned today.

Berg, head of juvenile department of Winona police department, said that a 25-cent penalty will be imposed on any license sold after June 30. Licenses may be obtained at police headquarters.

Humphrey Backs Direct Selling; Convention Ends

WASHINGTON, D. C.—America can outproduce and outsell any nation "in spades and trumps" but Americans must intensify direct selling of American products abroad to meet competition from the European Common Market.

That's what Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey told this week's four-day convention of the National Association of Direct Selling Companies.

The WASHINGTON meeting ended Wednesday. The senator told the 1,500 delegates and wives he could remember when his mother bought Watkins vanilla during his childhood.

"Nothing really happens until somebody sells something," Luther H. Hodges, U. S. secretary of commerce, told the convention.

The convention was opened by J. M. George, Winona, association president. Lloyd E. Deilke, Winona, assistant to George, reviewed the association's history.

L. W. Goldberg, Winona, chairman of the public relations committee, was commended for his report and received a plaque for his contribution to direct selling over many years.

JOHN FEDDERS, general city sales manager, Watkins Products, Inc., participated in a panel discussion of "Types of Field Organizations and Methods of Compensation of Managers."

Other Watkins officials attending the convention were: C. C. Currier, vice president, city division; H. M. Meyers, vice president, rural division; Myles Peterson, recruiting and training manager, city division; H. W. Lockwood, director of advertising, and Freeman Schroder, general rural sales manager.

Program to Boost High School Study Backed

Winona Kiwanians today heard of the success of private organization in fostering interest in high school academic excellence.

The speaker was Dr. Harold Swenberg, Quincy, Ill., a retired physician and founder of the Society for Academic Achievement.

The SAA, incorporated in Quincy in 1959, now has issued charters to 55 sponsoring organizations in 12 states. Groups to which charters are granted conduct programs of academic improvement in their respective local high schools under rules laid down by the parent organization.

Dr. Swenberg, a charter member of the Quincy Kiwanis Club in 1920, told of the origins of the SAA, which began as a local project in his home city.

KIWANIS CLUB members there sent three Quincy high school teachers to St. Louis, Mo., to study a "major learning program." The program was adopted in 1957 in Quincy schools, taken up by all schools of Adams County in 1958, then organized on an international basis in 1959. It is designed to encourage the highest possible standards in high schools and is undertaken in all cases in cooperation with the schools.

"We're not trying to take over education," Dr. Swenberg said. "But we are trying to help show the way to improvement of education."

Coroner's Jury Checks Death of Arcadia Youth

WHITEHALL, Wis. (Special) — An inquest began here this morning investigating the circumstances in the death of Jack Sobotta May 29.

Sobotta died after a one-car accident on Highways 95 and 93 and Main Street in Arcadia. The verdict from the jury was expected later this afternoon.

On the six-man jury are: Carl Schaefer, Oliver Peterson, Henry Haugen, Broney Manka, Bennie Scjony and Henry Sygulla, all of Whitehall.

THE INQUEST is being conducted by J. E. Garaghan, Trempealeau County coroner. LaVern Kostner, Arcadia, appeared on behalf of Sobotta's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sobotta, Arcadia, and Donald S. Johnson, Trempealeau County district attorney, appeared on behalf of the state.

Dr. Thomas Chisholm, who had been at the accident scene, testified that Sobotta was taken to the hospital in shock, bleeding from head wounds and convulsions. The accident occurred about 12:30 p.m. Sobotta died at 2 a.m. Dr. Chisholm testified that death was from a compound skull fracture with deep brain lacerations which caused respiratory and heart failure.

Dr. Chisholm testified that he did not detect the presence of any liquor.

TWO PASSENGERS in the car the night of the accident also took the stand this morning.

Gordon Cook, 18, Holmen Rt. 1, who works at the Ford Garage, Winona, testified that he met Charles Halvorson, 18, driver of the car, at the Shell service station at Galesville May 28 between 7 and 7:30 p.m. Darvis Anderson also joined them at the station, but they had no prearranged plans.

Cook said the three drove to Trempealeau Vets' Club about 8:30 p.m. and he believed they had a few beers there. Halvorson, the driver, did not drink as much as the others because he was playing the pinball machine, he said.

Douglas Lindberg, 18, Trempealeau, joined them at the Vets' Club and the four boys went to Tavernville and stopped at Art's Tavern, Cook said.

Lindberg did not go inside, according to Cook, but the others had a beer there. They bought bologna at a nearby store and all four drove to Arcadia. At Arcadia they went to City Cafe for one or two beers, according to Cook, but Halvorson didn't have as much to drink because he began talking to three girls.

COOK TESTIFIED that Halvorson had a six-pack of beer when they returned to the car, and that all of them drank another can of beer. The four boys and three girls drove to the Sobotta home about midnight, according to Cook, picked up Sobotta and all of them drove to the root-beer stand before taking the girls home. They had put down the back seat of the station wagon so the boys could sit on the floor and talk while they took Sobotta home.

Cook said Darvis Anderson suddenly said something about slowing down. Halvorson hit the brakes and the car slid towards the center of the highway.

Anderson gave almost identical testimony except he claimed another six-pack was purchased at the corner store and the boys each had a can, except Halvorson, on the south side of Arcadia.

Anderson said he had gone to sleep and awoke suddenly as he felt the station wagon slide and saw a telephone pole come towards him.

GAYNELL FUGINA, 623 E. Main St., Arcadia, also testified this morning. She said she was reading in bed between 12:15 and 12:30 May 29 when she heard a noise. She saw a car with its right front wheels on the boulevard pointed southeast.

One boy was on his hands and knees complaining about his back, one on the other side of the lawn, one body on the boulevard. She said she saw one boy get into the station wagon, back it off the boulevard and put one injured boy into it.

George Frisch, policeman answering the accident bulletin, also testified he detected no alcohol. He testified that it was raining lightly and foggy but this had not impeded his driving.

Milo Johnson, Strum, patrolman, who arrived at the accident about 1 a.m., testified that he found 77.5 feet of gouges in the boulevard east from a bent and badly damaged lightpole.

Testimony was to continue this afternoon.

$1.3 Million Set For Eau Claire State Building

MADISON, Wis. (AP)—The State Building Commission today approved construction of a state office building in Eau Claire at a cost of $1.3 million.

The decision ran contrary to one made a month ago when the commission voted to set aside the project for an indefinite period. Opposition to the project at the earlier meeting was registered by Jack Arnold, an Eau Claire construction company operator and holder of several rental buildings in Eau Claire used by state departments.

The commission also approved a $1.3 million outlay for the construction of new units to house 1,400 married students at the University of Wisconsin-Madison campus.

Employment in May Record for Month

Winona employment in mid-May reached a record high for that month of 10,241, climbing past the 10,000 mark for the first time this year.

This was reported by Ray H. Brown, local manager, State Employment Service.

MANUFACTURING employment reached an all-time high for that category of 4,317.

The mid-May 1962 total was 106 more than the mid-May 1961 total of 10,135, 253 more than the mid-April 1962 total of 9,982, and 489 more than the mid-January 1962 total of 9,752.

Brown said the May increase was due mainly to heavy hiring in manufacturing and small gains in utilities and construction. Employees expect continuing high employment throughout the summer.

OF THE manufacturing record, Brown said:

"A jump of 216 workers raised employment in this group to 4,317, the highest manufacturing level since records have been kept by the local office."

"Increases were general throughout the manufacturing field. Food processing, textiles, paper and allied, chemicals, concrete products and wood products all pushed ahead during the month."

"Biggest gains were in chemicals, concrete products and wood products. Chemicals were high due to peak season operation in commercial fertilizers. Concrete products rose as silo manufacturing moved into its heavy season and wood products jumped as this industry pushed into full production schedules. Manufacturers generally anticipate continuing good levels during the next three-month period."

Construction netted a small rise during the month. Employment in this field, although moving up, continues substantially lower than the levels of a year ago. Completion of work on several large projects in the area and lack of highway work will tend to hold construction employment lower than that of the past several years. Any substantial employment climb in the construction field must depend to a large extent upon Highway Department action in awarding new area contracts.

BROWN SAID labor demand was strong during May. The heaviest need was in manufacturing. Experienced stenographers and office workers continued in demand.

Labor supply was up at the end of May. About 900 persons sought work through Brown's office. Brown said student job-seekers kept the total high. Of the 900, about 400 were women.

Here's a five-year roundup of mid-May employment: 1962, 10,241; 1961, 10,135; 1960, 9,982; 1959, 10,087; and 1958, 9,611.

The mid-May report follows:

Red Cross Needs 89,000 Pints For 166 Hospitals

To supply blood to the 166 hospitals served by the St. Paul regional Red Cross blood center 89,000 pints of blood must be collected annually, Gordon Heining, director of recruiting told the Rotary Club at Hotel Winona Wednesday.

It costs the Red Cross $6.59 a pint to collect the required blood, which is supplied free to all residents of the 76 counties regardless where they may be when they require a transfusion, he said.

All hospitals charge an administration fee which varies in the area from $8 to $35 a pint. At Winona General Hospital it is $12. The useful life of blood kept under hospital refrigeration is 21 days. After 21 days blood not used is returned to the blood center where there is some salvage. Three important blood products, including plasma, are made from this old blood.

Persons who may give blood and who are urged to do it must be between the ages of 18 and 60 and in good health and free of records of certain diseases.

Trial Postponed

The trial of Leonard A. Drazkowski, 45, Fountain City, Wis., was ordered continued today to June 21 by Municipal Judge S. D. J. Bruski. John McGill, Drazkowski's attorney, requested the continuance. Drazkowski pleaded not guilty in municipal court Saturday to a charge of drunken driving.

Damage $200 in Three-Car Crash

A three-car accident resulted in about $200 damage late Wednesday afternoon.

Police said that all three cars were driving south on Huff Street just south of 4th Street about 5:13 p.m.

A car driven by Miss Sharon Nyseth, 19, 1217 W. 4th St., struck the rear of a car driven by James T. Lutz, 22, Garvin Heights, police said. The impact of this collision threw Lutz's car into the rear of one driven by Miss Sheila E. Nuszloch, Lewistown. The cars and Huff streets and were waiting for a stoplight to change.

Damage to Miss Nyseth's car was estimated by police at more than $100, to Lutz's car, more than $50, and to Miss Nuszloch's car, less than $50.

No one was injured and no charges were made.

SEAL THE KNOTS

To prevent the resin in knots from staining the paint on your house, be sure to seal the knots. Best results will be obtained by using a specially formulated knot sealer, but satisfactory sealing can be obtained with aluminum paint or shellac.

MIX WELL

Here's how to mix house paint to assure complete dispersion of the pigment: Pour most of the liquid into a clean, larger container. Using a paint paddle, stir the solid portion with the remaining liquid until it becomes creamy. Add liquid from the larger container a little at a time and stir it in. Then pour the paint from one container to the other until it is homogenous. This step is known as boxing.

No Rain For Four Days; What's Wrong?

June is beginning to act more like what people expect it to be for a few days at least.

A little warmer tonight and Friday is the forecast with nothing said about rain. A low in the 50s is expected tonight and a high from 75 to 82 Friday.

And Saturday, the weatherman says, will be warmer with showers likely.

The thermometer rose to a perfect 76 Wednesday afternoon, dropped to a chilly 47 during the night, met the dawn with 55 and rose to 75 at noon.

NO RAIN has fallen since Sunday night, the longest break since April 22-27.

A year ago today Winona had a high of 79 and low of 55. All-time high for June 14 was 94 in 1886 and 1952 and the lowest for the day was 42 in 1933. Mean for the past 24 hours was 61. Normal for this day is 69.

In Minnesota temperatures ranged from the mid-40s to the high 70s. Redwood Falls had a high of 79 and Duluth a low of 45. At Rochester the Wednesday high was 75 and the low today 49. La Crosse posted figures of 77 and 50 for the same times.

The Mississippi at Winona dropped under 8 feet today for the first time since the June crest of 11.2 June 2 and was 7.9. A prediction of 7.7, 7.5 and 7.3 was made for the next three days.

The weather in WISCONSIN was catching up with the calendar today as temperatures pushed steadily upward. By Friday, warm weather is expected to prevail throughout the state.

It was sunny Wednesday as the mercury pushed to 78 degrees at Eau Claire, 76 at Park Falls and 75 at Wausau and Superior. Racine had 73, Madison 74 and Milwaukee 68.

At night, minimums ranged from 44 at Madison to 51 at Racine. Lone Rock, Milwaukee and Superior had 45, Park Falls and Eau Claire 46, Wausau 48, Green Bay and Beloit 49.

3-County School Unit Turns Down Arkansas Plan

DURAND, Wis.—Proposed consolidation of Little Arkansas and Big Arkansas grade schools with the Durand Unified District was rejected 11-2 Wednesday night at Durand High School auditorium at a joint meeting of Buffalo, Dunn and Pepin County school committees.

The committees voted by secret ballot. Five committee members were absent. Two hundred persons attended the 1½-hour meeting. Arthur Drier, member of the Arkansas Union Free High School board, said he opposed the petition because his district would lose the two rural schools. He also discussed a proposal, which he opposed, to change his district to a common school district.

Several persons residing in the Little and Big Arkansas areas favored consolidation with the Durand district. They said consolidation would provide better education to their children at less cost. Little Arkansas and Big Arkansas are one-room schools. High school students from these areas go to Arkansas High School.

The outdoor services are presented through joint effort of the Wisconsin Evangelical Lutheran Synod churches of the Winona area.

Rev. Voss graduated from Northwestern College, Watertown, Wis., in 1950. From there he entered Wisconsin Lutheran Seminary, Mequon, Wis., and graduated in 1953.

He has served two congregations during his ministry, Faith Lutheran Church, Fond du Lac, Wis., and St. Joseph Lutheran.

At the present time he also is chairman of the manpower committee of the Wisconsin Synod. He also is a member of the Southeastern Wisconsin District mission board and chairman of the Wisconsin Lutheran High School Conference in Milwaukee and on the board of directors for this school.

Rev. Voss is married and has two children. He will speak on "Workers for Christ."

At 2 p.m. service, Prof. Carl S. Leyser will be the guest speaker. Leyser is the dean of men at Northwestern College, Watertown.

Northwestern College is a liberal arts school which has as its chief purpose preparing men for entrance into the Wisconsin Lutheran Seminary and finally the Lutheran ministry. He also is a member of the manpower committee of the Wisconsin Synod.

Houston Co. Board OKs River Patrol

CALEDONIA, Minn. (Special) —Houston County commissioners Wednesday authorized hiring a special river patrol and reviewed plans for remodeling the courtroom.

Byron Whitehouse, sheriff, was authorized to hire a special deputy to patrol the river Saturday and Sunday afternoons during the summer until Labor Day.

William Ward from Flat Smith & Associates, Winona architectural firm, presented drawings for a remodeled courtroom. The commissioners asked him to present cost estimates at a special meeting of the board June 25.

THE COMMISSIONERS asked the county engineer to stake the Shore Acres road at La Crescent after a delegation requested it. Residents of Shore Acres, La Crescent Township and the following members of the town board of La Crescent (Cyril Mighall, John Fokema and Roy Waters) reported that the road is impassable.

In sundry action: Salary of the assistant county engineer, Charles Sheehan, was set at $500 a month; bridge inspector, Alan Bissen, $391.66 a month, and highway bookkeeper, Lillian Brown, $130 an hour. These salary changes are effective July 1.

C. H. Kremer, clerk of court, was authorized to buy an electric typewriter.

Next regular meeting will be July 9.

Canadian and U.S. Politics Operate Alike

By ARTHUR F. WOLF

OTTAWA (AP)—Canadian and U.S. politics, though operating in widely different systems, bear this resemblance: Each has two major parties.

Some Canadians, with dubious exactitude, compare the currently ruling Conservative party to the Republicans and the opposition Liberal party to the Democrats.

The situation differs from that of the United States in that two minor parties are having an impact on the campaign for next Monday's parliamentary election. These are the New Democratic party, which has a Socialist base, and the Social Credit party—a rightist group which calls all other parties socialist.

The minor parties are claiming a large number of seats, and even in the major camps there is a tendency to concede them 12 to 20 seats of the 265 in Parliament. Thus, if the two big parties run close, as now appears possible, there could be a minority government, as in 1957.

Lester B. Pearson, the Liberal leader, told an election rally his party offers the only alternative

2 More Orbital Flights Planned For This Year

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two more manned orbital flights around the earth are planned this year by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

Dr. Robert C. Seamans Jr., associate director of NASA, told the Senate Space Committee Wednesday that plans call for both flights to be three-orbit affairs similar to those made by astronauts John H. Glenn Jr. and Malcolm Scott Carpenter.

"If we feel we have all the information we need, and if we think it will be safe, we will try for longer flights," he added.

Also scheduled this year, Seamans said, is another try at obtaining television pictures of the moon and landing an instrument package on the moon's surface.

The United States has failed in eight attempts to launch a successful shot at the moon, although the last one, in April, achieved a landing on the far side of the moon.

Another project planned this year, Seamans said, is a fly-by of the planet Venus, using a modified version of the Ranger spacecraft employed in the moon shots.

June Is Dairy Month Ice Cream Grew Out Of Flavored Ices

Ice cream, according to its historians, is more of a perfection than an invention. It grew out of the flavored ices which were popular with the nobility as long ago as the time of Alexander the Great.

Throughout its early history, ice cream remained a favorite of the nobility, and writings from the middle ages indicate that noble men discouraged efforts to reveal the recipe to common folk.

EVEN SO, the formula came to be known among the people, and ice cream became popular with the masses. Early settlers brought their taste for ice cream to America, and by the time of the signing of the Declaration of Independence, there were several American confectioners who specialized in the making of ice cream.

George Washington was an ardent ice cream fancier, and such famous hostesses as Dolly Madison and Mrs. Alexander Hamilton served it on many state occasions. Their precedent is still remembered: The dessert for the President's inaugural dinner in 1956 was "Ice Cream Parfait."

The popularity of ice cream in modern America is self-evident. According to one report, there are nearly 200 different flavors produced by our nation's ice cream manufacturers.

OF THIS variety, can you imagine which is the nation's favorite? It's none other than reliable, plain everyday vanilla. Second choice among America's ice cream fanciers is chocolate. Then comes strawberry, followed by coffee, but-ter pecan, walnut, cherry and numerous other flavors.

There's almost as much fun in preparing ice cream delicacies as there is in eating them.

Total ice cream production in Minnesota in 1961 was 18,795,000 (M) gallons.

the voters have to the present government.

"A vote for any other party is a vote for a party which cannot form a government," he said.

A few days later, Prime Minister John Diefenbaker, the Conservative leader, said votes would be wasted on New Democratic or Social Credit candidates.

"Only a sprinkling will be elected," he went on. "They have no hope."

Those who study the campaign lean to the feeling that Diefenbaker's government will be returned but with far less than the 208 seats it won in 1958. Conservative strategists say they can count more than the 133 seats needed for a majority. The Liberals talk in similar figures. Neither is quite sure where the minor parties will drain off votes.

The issues have, in the main, been economic: Unemployment and devaluation of the Canadian dollar last month to 92.5 U.S. cents. Pearson pleads for an opportunity to "clean up the mess." Diefenbaker offers a wide-ranging program for Canada's future combined with a defense of his government's record.

Moppy Anderson Not Candidate For Legislature

PRESTON, Minn. — A name familiar in all parts of Minnesota—Moppy Anderson—will be absent from 1963 legislative news stories. The veteran of six terms today announced his intention to retire from the political wars and retire in part from public life.

Anderson's seat as representative-at-large for Fillmore and Houston counties was eliminated by the legislative apportionment Act of 1959. Fillmore and Houston now have one representative each in the House and jointly elect one state senator. The senate seat was unaffected by the legislative redistricting act.

Representing the two counties in the state senate is Lew Larson, Mabel. Fillmore County representative is Rep. Clinton Hall, Rushford, and Houston County's representative is Rep. Lloyd Duxbury Jr., Caledonia.

Future Astronauts May Land in Desert

TEMPE, Ariz. (AP) — Future American astronauts may land in the New Mexico desert instead of the ocean.

Dr. Russell K. Sherburne, chief scientist at White Sands Proving Grounds in New Mexico, said in an interview that as space vehicles become more sophisticated, land recovery will be preferable to water.

He said orbital vehicles hit the water at a speed of about 30 feet per second, and safe ground landing could be made at 20 feet per second.

Although Sherburne did not elaborate, his reference to the New Mexico desert apparently was made because of facilities at White Sands and the wide open space of the desert.

Sherburne was here Tuesday for a lecture at Arizona State University.

175,000 Homeless Cats in Dallas

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Cat-crowded Dallas is toying with the idea of limiting four cats to each household.

Dr. J. W. Bass, city health director, confirmed Wednesday that city officials are considering such an ordinance "but this is as far as we've thought of going."

Dr. Bass said the ordinance would not include kittens. Exactly at what age a kitten becomes a cat has not been determined.

Bellon P. Mouras of the humane society estimates there are 175,000 homeless cats in Dallas.

AN ARTHRITIC condition was cited as a partial reason for Anderson's decision to retire from politics. The condition would, he said, "make it impossible to engage in the type of vigorous campaign that I have always insisted on, and I also feel that the time has come for me to give way to younger aspirants. I have no definite plans for the future but hope to find some part-time work that I am best fitted for."

Though friends had suggested he run for the Fillmore County seat in the lower house or as a senatorial candidate, Anderson declined to run, he said.

Anderson said he was grateful for the interest shown but "I have always felt that anyone in a political job is entitled to a second term. Rep. Hall and Sen. Larson are both serving their first terms and should I file against either, I would go contrary to my political belief."

Expressing special appreciation for the support of people in his home town, Preston, Anderson said he would continue his interest in good legislation in the hope of still being of service to friends in both Fillmore and Houston counties.

ANDERSON ENJOYED a position of considerable influence in the Legislature, holding memberships on committees on commercial transport and communications, insurance, taxes, towns and counties, and veterans and military affairs.

In a state where Andersons are as numerous as pebbles on the beach, the Fillmore County man managed to be unique. His intriguing nickname was inseparably affixed in childhood by a small relative who could not pronounce his correct name "Malvin." Clinging to him from that time on, the old handle was solemnized into official usage when the attorney general ruled it permissible to use the nickname on the ballot when running for county treasurer.

St. Teresa Offering Language Course for Elementary Teachers

The College of Saint Teresa will start a special summer session next week to prepare elementary teachers to teach Spanish, French and German and to enable graduate students to meet college language requirements.

This was announced by Sister M. Emmanuel, OSF, Teresian dean, and Sister M. Avila, OSF, registrar.

CLASSES will begin Monday in basic French and basic German and will continue through Aug. 3. June 25 classes will begin in basic Spanish and in intermediate French and intermediate Spanish and will continue through Aug. 25.

The basic language program, which is a full year's work, carries eight credits. The intermediate program carries six credits. Also invited to enroll are secondary teachers and other persons interested in learning a language and who can qualify for college work.

Phone the registrar's office for further information.

THE SPECIAL summer session seems in part from a nationwide trend requiring elementary teachers to teach languages to their pupils.

During the past year, Arsenio Sandoval, University of New Mexico, a Spanish linguistics specialist, has taught such a course to about 30 Winona public and parochial school teachers evenings at the college.

Among those taking this summer's intermediate courses will be persons who took basic courses in French and Spanish at the college last summer.

Faculty members for this summer's program follow:

Basic French—Sister Jeanne du Sacre Coeur, P. de M., Salve Regina College, Newport, R. I. Intermediate French—Mlle. Simone Verdon, University of Wisconsin.

Basic Spanish—Miss Jane Keck, an experienced Spanish instructor in conversation and composition. Intermediate Spanish—Orest Ochymowycz, candidate for a doctorate from the State University of Iowa, and who taught at Saint Teresa's last summer. Basic German—Dr. John Radomsky, chairman, Teresian department of modern languages.

House Nearing Decision on National Debt

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST

WASHINGTON (AP)—With cries of blackmail and threats of a special session ringing in their ears, House members face a decision on whether to increase the national debt limit by $3 billion or $5 billion or not at all.

President Kennedy wants the $3-billion boost for one year; most Republicans favor a $5-billion raise; some members don't want any increase.

Unless Congress does something in a hurry, the present temporary ceiling of $300 billion will drop to $285 billion at the end of this month. The administration claims this would put the government in a financial straight jacket.

Injured La Crescent Girl Undergoes Surgery

LA CRESCENT, Minn.—Vicky Farrell, injured Memorial Day in a fall from a horse, successfully underwent surgery at St. Mary's Hospital, Rochester.

Vicky, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Farrell, La Crescent, suffered a skull fracture and multiple bruises when her horse became startled at the sound of a truck slowing down as it approached an intersection. She is reported to be greatly improved.

icans claim is based on day-dreaming.

Opponents of any increase, apparently in the minority, called for financial belt-tightening and a halt to any spending that could be deferred.

Debate Wednesday on the controversial issue brought a threat from Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D. Ark., that any increase below $3 billion might force the President to call a special session of Congress next fall to provide more financial elbow room for the Treasury.

It also produced angry complaints from Republicans against what they called blackmail and threats of reprisals against members who didn't support the President.

The threats, Republican members said, involved cancellation or curtailment of defense contracts in their districts.

342 Traffic Summons Cost $12,725 in Fines

NEW YORK (AP)—Harry Katz, former lonely hearts club operator, has been crowned this city's new "scofflaw king," but it was no fun. Katz' court was traffic court; his palace, where he will spend 120 days, is the City Jail, and the little cost him $12,725 in fines.

Chief Magistrate Abraham M. Bloch imposed sentence Wednesday after Katz had pleaded guilty to ignoring 342 traffic summonses. Katz, 43, was given the alternative of spending 95 days in jail if he did not pay the fines imposed.

HOUND COLLAR
Plenty of hound men shy away from putting a collar on their dogs in thick country because the dog may snag up on the leather and be lost. Here's a substitute, and a good one. Stencil your name in white paint on rings cut out of a motorcycle inner tube. It's just the size to grip the necks of your hounds. BUT the hound can twist his way free, if it hangs up. It's a good idea where possible to paint the outside window sash and trim with your chosen trim paint or exterior enamel before painting the rest of the house. In this way you avoid placing the ladder against the newly painted siding.

Area Growers Hear Turkey Order Explained

ROCHESTER, Minn.—An explanation of the proposed marketing order which will be voted on in a national referendum June 18-22 was given to about 60 Southeastern Minnesota turkey producers and processors at the REA Building here Tuesday evening.

Mel Hendrickson, price support specialist from the state Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation office, and Milton Maxwell, Le Sueur, state ASC committeeman, outlined the program with slides and a question-answer period.

MAXWELL EXPLAINED that marketing orders give producers bargaining power through orderly marketing of produce at a fair price to the consumer and fair return to the producer.

"This is not a government program," Maxwell said. "It is a growers program. The growers elect their own advisory committee to set policies and administer the program. The secretary of agriculture serves as referee to protect the public interest."

He outlined the history of marketing orders and said one of the industries now using such a program is the oil industry where distilling of new wells, pumping of crude oil, etc., are all regulated.

Maxwell said this is the first attempt at a marketing order in the turkey industry. An advisory committee, appointed by the secretary of agriculture at the request of the industry, recommended this action.

WITH THE FLOOD of turkeys on the market and resulting price slump of last year, turkey growers faced the possibility of vertical integration whereby feed companies take over the production, processing and sale of turkeys and the farmer becomes little more than a hired laborer.

Hendrickson explained that producers-growers, contract producers and cooperatives which marketed more than 3,600 pounds of turkey's during 1961 are eligible to vote in the referendum. Before the marketing order can be put into effect it must be approved by at least two-thirds majority of producers voting by number or by volume of production. Voting will be done by secret ballot at the county or state ASC office.

IF THE referendum is put into effect, a 19-member advisory board will be nominated by the turkey producers and will be charged with basic policy and guidance. The board will name a 60-member administration committee which will manage the order and set up operations offices.

Costs of administering the order will be paid by the industry through 20 percent per hundred-weight charge against processors

Wiley Asks Delay on Nomination

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Alexander Wiley, R-Wis., has invoked the rule of "senatorial courtesy" in a move to delay action on the nomination of John G. Green, a Superior, Wis., newspaper executive, as collector of customs in the Superior-Duluth, Minn. district.

Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., told a newsman the maneuver stemmed from a patronage fight.

Wiley appeared before the Senate Finance Committee Wednesday to urge a delay in a decision on Green's nomination, made by President Kennedy.

Wiley told the committee "everything I have heard about Green is good," but asked the delay to allow the Republican now holding the post, Dr. George N. Sundquist, to serve out his term which the senator said would end in March 1963.

Wiley, who is seeking re-election this year, used the rule of "senatorial courtesy" in an effort to get the committee to go along with him. The "courtesy" maneuver is a less severe action than declaring a nominee to be personally objectionable. The latter stand usually blocks a nomination, but is rarely used.

First Father's Day in Spokane 52 Years Ago

SPOKANE, Wash. (AP)—A two-horse carriage bumped along a dirt street in Spokane 52 years ago this Sunday.

Two women were riding in the carriage and on its floor was a bundle—containing gifts for "shut-in" fathers on the nation's first Father's Day.

"Father's Day has seen progress move from horse and buggy times to space crafts orbiting around our earth," says Mrs. John Bruce Dodd, founder of Father's Day. "I experience indescribable pride when I think of the courage of our young astronaut fathers who are daring the elements in quest of peace. May our Supreme Father companion them always."

Mrs. Dodd, daughter of a Civil War veteran, was one of the women in the carriage more than half a century ago. A friend, Eva Cummings Estes, was the other.

"My father—William Jackson Smart—reared six of us children on an eastern Washington wheat farm after our mother's passing," Mrs. Dodd recalls. "He was a strict disciplinarian. But he was very gentle, too."

The idea to honor her father, and all fathers, grew in Mrs. Dodd's mind after she heard a sermon on the trials—and joys—of fatherhood. She encouraged Spokane clergymen to make father the theme of their sermons on the third Sunday in June. City and state officials were asked to proclaim the day Father's Day.

It wasn't until 1916 that President Woodrow Wilson recommended that Father's Day be made a national observance.

Mrs. Dodd—gray-haired but in good health and busy—said she has turned down a hundred offers to endorse liquor, soap—even steaks.

"I would never endorse anything," said Mrs. Dodd. "but steak would be nice for father on his day, wouldn't it?"

Boat Motor Taken In Bathhouse Slough

The rash of reported thefts of boats, motors and boating equipment continues. Another motor was reported stolen today.

Strand Wedul, 418 Grand St., told Sheriff George Fort that his blue Evinrude 15-horsepower motor was stolen from the Bathhouse Slough in Wisconsin sometime between Wednesday and Thursday noon.

Wedul valued his motor at $250.

THREE TO REMEMBER Inexpensive floor mats keep your regular car carpet in good shape... but they also prevent a tedious windshield scraping if freezing rain or snow is the forecast. And those empty plastic spray bottles your wife throws away by the score all make dandy oil cans. Pressure of your hand regulates the exact amount you need. Need a Phillips head screwdriver bad? A new large nail can sometimes do the job. (If the screw isn't set too tight.)

ARCADIA, Wis. (Special) — An incubator for St. Joseph's Hospital nursery has been purchased with profits from the 1962 Lions sponsored Broiler-Dairy Festival.

Net profit from the festival, as reported by Club Treasurer Prosper Schank, was $2,648.15, just $200 short of last year's net profit. Although a gross profit of $13,450.53 was realized, expenses were high. All profits from the festival go into the club treasury to be used for civic projects.

In addition to the new incubator, the Lions will sponsor the July 15-22 visit of 9-year-old Patricia Slaby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Slaby, Arcadia, at the Wisconsin Lions Camp for Visually Handicapped at Rosholt, Wis. Patricia has been totally blind since birth.

Two annual scholarships for high school students, the school community fair in the fall and the annual children's Halloween party are a few of the other Lions projects.

Babysitter Chokes 14-Month-Old Boy After Losing Job

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — A 20-year-old babysitter, apparently unhappy over losing her job because of too many visits from her boy friend, told police she strangled a 14-month-old boy with a silk stocking.

Miss Rochelle Posey was charged with first-degree murder in the death of Michael Magier. She had telephoned police that she killed the child Wednesday. The boy was dead before police got him to a hospital.

"I FEEL sorry about it now," Miss Posey told a reporter. "I'm guilty. I don't care what happens to me. "I didn't want to have to find another job. I knew I couldn't hold it. I got pretty upset, so I decided to take the baby's life." Police Chief Forrest Dieffendorf of Norton Village said he and two patrolmen found the child lying on a couch with a pillow over his face. A woman's silk stocking was wound tightly around his throat.

Berserk Gunman Sent To Mental Hospital

PITTSBURGH (AP) — William Pola, 24, who went berserk and fatally shot a psychiatrist June 1, was ordered transferred Wednesday to the Farview State Hospital for the criminally insane.

Pola, of Wilmerding, shot Dr. Daniel Thaw at the Leech Farm Veterans Administration Hospital where he was being treated as an out-patient.

He then held off police in a two-hour gun battle before being subdued by tear gas. He has been under observation at St. Francis General Hospital since his capture.

DEAR ABBY:

Girl Needs
A Talking To

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am not the type to start trouble, but a girl (about 14) should be talked to, and I don't know how to go about it. I got a telephone call one afternoon from a girl who asked, "Is your husband home?" (I've been a widow for three years.) I replied, "No, he isn't."

Then she said, "Tell him Sylvia called to thank him for the flowers." Then she hung up.

A friend of mine told me that she had a similar call, only the girl said, "Tell him Ruth called to thank him for the candy." (My friend's husband is living.) A neighbor of mine told me there is a teenaged girl in the neighborhood who has been known to pick any name out of the telephone book and make calls like this just to start trouble. What should I do, if anything?

ANNOYED

DEAR ANNOYED: Report your experience and that of your friend to the telephone company, giving all details. They will keep the information confidential while putting a stop to the misuse of the telephone.

DEAR ABBY: How do you get people to go home? I have to get up at 6 in the morning to go to work six days a week and some of the people who visit us in the evening do not have enough sense to leave at a reasonable hour — say around 12 o'clock. Should I start throwing hints about how early morning comes? My wife says this is rude. Please give me some ideas on this.

EARLY RISER

DEAR EARLY: People who NEED hints wouldn't know a hint if it came up and hit them in the eye. When you feel that the evening should end (say about 12 o'clock) tell your guests quite frankly that you are an early riser and need your rest. Then go to bed.

DEAR ABBY: Can a man who has a legal separation in one state get married legally in another state? I don't think he can, but he says yes.

ABBY FAN

DEAR FAN: A legal separation is only a separation, not a divorce. One who is only thus separated CANNOT marry anywhere!

"This is the first time in the history of the country," said Gen. Herbert B. Powell in an interview, "that we were able to call a unit to active duty, fill it with trained men and have it ready to deploy anywhere in the world within three months."

The general went on to say at a news briefing that he would like to compliment the units involved. He said only the Kremlin really knows how great a deterrent the units were to involving the United States in a shooting war.

Africa Home To Old Timers

NAIROBI, Kenya.—It is a long view from a tall hill where the Kikuyu escarpment twists down into Kijabe, overlooking the Kedong Valley. On a clear day you can see 60 miles toward the southern Masai.

Old timers call it M.M.B.A.—"miles and miles of bloody Africa." Tourists stop at a little lip jutting over the sheer escarpment to marvel at the view, and notice a tiny church, nestling into the hillside, which the Italian prisoners built during World War II.

Uncle Max Nightingale knew every inch of this country, as he was fond of saying in a rather fretful voice. "I should know it. I came out here in 1906 to survey the bloody place and I walked 8,000 miles a year taking the country's measure."

Those of us who have television sets and saw the recent hour spectacular on Africa on the NBC network saw Max, with his lovely wife, Aunt Nel, featured in the film as one of the finer examples of the kind of colonial who made the settling of East Africa possible.

THE FILM was shot at their home on the South Kinangop. It is a lovely place of pastoral peace, sweeping acres of clipped green grass, riotous flowers and a serene blue lake on which the tame geese float.

It is overlooked by a lofty mountain called Fey's Peak, named for himself by Aunt Nel's father, Skipper Fey, a roving, seafaring gentleman, who took a walk from Mombasa one day and wound up 450 miles distant in Northwestern Kenya. This is high country here—9,000 feet—and the people are tempery and subject to what is sometimes called "Kenya nerves."

But they are tough people and proud people and they pull their life with their fingernails out of the rocky hills.

Uncle Max took Aunt Nel surveying with him on their honeymoon 60 years ago. Rhino tripped over the surveying chains and by the time they had knocked off another hundred square miles of territory, Nel was pregnant. She went on to have other children: Jim, a bearded man in his mid-fifties, who is generally accorded to be the best farmer in Kenya, and who has made an Eden out of his rocky acres; Ivo was killed with the RAF during the war and won a posthumous D.S.M.; a daughter died of pneumonia, but nine grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren survived to keep Aunt Nel company.

ALSO A PILLAR of strength in their family is a girl named Eva Monley who is called a "niece" but actually is an adopted daughter, and incidentally is possibly the best production manager in the film business, having worked on everything from "King Solomon's Mines" through "Exodus" to the current "Lawrence of Arabia," which she is now making in Spain.

The farm, called "Sasamua," is rimmed by the Chania river and is at the peak of what is called "the White Highlands," hard by the bamboo jungles and podotree forests that housed so many thousands of Mau Mau gangsters during the emergency here.

But no Mau Mau ever set foot on Sasamua. The Nightingale family had a tame witch doctor, named Kinyanjui, who drew a magic ring around the farm with the result that no door was ever locked during the half-dozen years of the emergency.

A couple of years ago, Kinyanjui died. Some say he died of old age; most agree that he was poisoned by the threatening forces that are still closing in on the Kinangop. In any case, the luck has been beginning to change.

and even the colobus monkeys have retreated farther into the jungle by the roaring dam.

SOME OF UNCLE MAX's relatives have left the country, unable to face the problems that are recurrent with Kenya's emergence as a free nation with an eventual 100 percent black takeover, but Uncle Max and Aunt Nel would never leave except by the exit route of death. As Aunt Nel, who looks like Ethel Barrymore, once told me, "If the cook cuts my throat he will jolly well have to say, 'I beg your pardon, memsahib,' because I have had the blighter for fifty-six years."

And as Uncle Max, a little Scottish terrier of a man, with a clipped gray moustache and irritable method of expression said: "When we came here there was nothing here. All of us who were here in the beginning, dead or alive, are stay here. I will stay here, Nel will stay here. My children will stay here. My Africans will stay here. My grandchildren will stay here. Because this is our home."

Steak, Spareribs Barbecue Specials For Father's Day

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The nation's supermarkets are offering almost a full menu of specials to tickle Father's Day palates this weekend.

Steaks are widely featured, with one national chain selling sirloin at 79 cents a pound and porter-house at 85 in its New York area outlets. Lettuce, greens and tomatoes are cheaper at most markets. Potatoes remain a bargain and spinach, peas, butterbeans and sweet corn are regional bargains. For fresh desserts, watermelon, strawberries, cherries, peaches and blueberries are priced low.

Other beef attractions include roasts, especially rump and round, hamburger and ground beef. There is a wide assortment of pork buys, including smoked hams and picnics, loin roasts and chops.

BUSINESS MIRROR

U.S. Stands Up to Common Market

B SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—The United States has a good chance of holding its own against the much vaunted European Common Market in any world trade contest.

This optimistic reassurance of many worried American manufacturers—and of government officials handling finance and trade—is expressed today by economists of the Chase National Bank, New York. But they quickly add a big "if."

The United States can hold its own—that is, halt the sharp percentage loss of world trade suffered in recent years, with its close bearing on the strength of the dollar and the outflow of gold—if production costs can be held in line with productivity gains.

The bank economists stress that mere comparison of American and European wage scales isn't the answer to the problem.

In a report on Western Europe as a competitor, the bank economists say:

Boys, 6 and 7,
Invited by YM

A program designed exclusively for boys 6 to 7 years old, Operation Fun, will get going on a three-day-a-week basis starting June 25.

Operation Fun is a YMCA project which now is in its second year under the guidance of Lou King, youth director.

The small-boy-oriented project emphasizes swimming instructions in small, closely supervised groups at the YMCA indoor pool. King will be assisted by Terry Ryan and Steve Biesanz in overseeing youngsters.

Devotional stories, games, group singfests, scaled-down hikes and simple crafts round out the program. A daily health hint is passed on to the boys and stresses personal physical fitness, King said. The program is divided into two sessions of three weeks each. Boys meet Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays from 1 to 4 p.m. with the first 45 minutes each day devoted to swimming.

Registrations are required, King said, and enrollment is limited to 30 boys for each session.

"The simple relationship between U.S. and European wage rates—how long it will take Common Market wages to catch up with American—is less important than how completely wage increases in each economy are offset by increases in productivity—whether unit labor costs move up, or down, or remain the same."

American manufacturers point out that in the 1950s, the period of the fast growth of the European industry, the Common Market's biggest advantage was unit labor costs. Hourly wages plus fringe benefits averaged about one-third of the levels in similar U.S. industries.

Offsetting this in large degree was higher American productivity—output per man-hour—but total production costs per unit were still lower in Europe.

The bank says that from 1953 to 1958 hourly wage scales rose faster in the United States than did productivity.

"Since 1958, however, U.S. wages and productivity have risen at about the same rate, while European wages have outstripped productivity gains," it adds.

Child Can Be Raised
In Big City

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Many people who say they like to visit New York City but sure would hate to live here sometimes add:

"Worst of all, I'd hate to have to bring up a kid here."

They seem to feel that such a child is underprivileged, cheated of his childhood in some way, misses something in life. But for the life of me, I can't see why.

As time goes on, more and more of our children will be raised in fairly large cities. What virtues, skills or abilities will they lack that children have who are raised in the suburbs, the small towns, or on a farm?

None, in my opinion. How you bring up a child is far more important than where you bring it up.

My wife and I are raising — I like the old-fashioned term better than the word rearing—our daughter, Tracy Ann, who'll be 9 years old this month. In the nation's biggest city. We think the place has certain decided advantages for this purpose—and no major defects.

We live in a big Manhattan housing project built by an insurance company. The place swarms with kids, and they have three large, supervised playgrounds in which they can enjoy any game from hop-scotch to basketball. The place is well-guarded by day and by night. There is no need for them to play in the street. A block away is a big public swimming pool.

A block distant in another direction is one of the best public schools in the city. Within the radius of a mile or so are a half dozen top private schools.

In the summer a city kid can get the thrill of learning about nature by going to a camp in the country for a few weeks. Or the whole family can have a vacation together at the seashore. Living in Manhattan, we find we can afford these things by the money we save as a result of not having to keep up an unneeded automobile.

In the winter a city parent here doesn't have to worry so much about his kid wandering out on an unwatched, half-frozen pond and falling through the ice. He can take his child sled-riding in a public park, ice skating in Rockefeller Center, or on a winter vacation to a resort.

An unforgettable advantage to raising a child in any big city is the many varied cultural experience he can get in a quality and quantity unmatched elsewhere—music, ballet, and the theater, in zoos, handicraft schools, and museums of all kinds.

If your child is a genius, or retarded, or has a particular health problem, or any kind, he is more likely to find facilities for the special care his situation requires in a big city than anywhere else.

Our own daughter is hearty, happy and robust. It is true she has developed one defect while living all of the short 9 years of her life here.

Two of her upper front teeth need straightening. But after reviewing the situation from all angles, we've decided we can get them fixed here just about as well as if we moved to the suburbs.

When it comes to a place to raise a child, we say, "Make ours Manhattan."

2 Officers
Fined for Beating Korean

CAMP HOWZE, Korea (AP)—

Two U.S. Army officers were reprimanded, fined $600 and suspended from command functions for six months today for beating a Korean.

The incident had touched off a storm of South Korean demands for jurisdiction over American servicemen who commit offenses while off duty.

A nine-member court martial imposed the sentences on 1st Lt. David W. Swanson, 25, of Galesburg, Ill., and Thomas M. Wilde, 25, of Wordsworth, Ill.

The two pleaded guilty of unlawful detention, assault and battery and giving false testimony under oath. The military court deliberated on the sentence for more than an hour. The fines are to be paid in $100 monthly installments. The sentences are subject to review by higher military authorities.

Swanson, a company commander, and Wilde, his executive officer, were accused of roping and beating Lee Il-yong, 30, after the Korean was caught inside their area May 29. Lee suffered head injuries, a broken finger and multiple bruises, the Army said.

The incident touched off student demonstrations last week at two universities in Seoul and one in Taegu, South Korea's third city, demanding that the United States quickly sign a status-of-forces agreement with the Seoul government.

10 Salad Oil Firms Indicted For Price Fixing

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Ten companies are accused of price fixing in the shortening and salad oil fields in indictments returned by a federal grand jury Wednesday.

Fourteen individuals also were indicted by the jury.

Stanley E. Disney, chief of the Justice Department's Los Angeles antitrust field office, said that every point Wednesday testimony given before a Texas court of inquiry by Frank Cain, a lawyer representing a finance company to which Estes was heavily in debt.

Solvents Firm's Dealings Probed

Trempealeau moved into a three-way tie for first place in the Hiawatha Valley League by edging Alma 6-5 Wednesday night.

Trempealeau scored four unearned runs in the first inning as Ed Whillcock drove a home run over the left field fence to provide the big blow.

Alma almost came back. With the score 6-5, the Rivermen loaded the bases in the last of the ninth.

The rally fell short as Bob James struck out the last man he faced.

Rod Van Vleet had a pair of singles for Trempealeau. Carroll Iberg had a double and a single for Alma.

Weisbrod allowed just four hits in getting the win for St. Charles.

It is not likely that Warren Spahn of the Braves will ever ask plaintively: "What do you have to do to win a game?" Since he has won 315 over the years, he knows the answer if any one does.

But he has a right to ask, anyway.

Spahn, who at 41 still shows only small signs of his age, set the Los Angeles Dodgers down with two runs in the eighth inning he worked before Wednesday night, but his Milwaukee mates got only one off Sandy Koufax, and the ancient southpaw dropped his fifth one-run

MINNESOTA BACK IN SECOND PLACE

Allison's Home Run Wins for Twins 4-2

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Bob Allison hoisted an eighth inning homer into the left field bullpen at Chavez Ravine Wednesday night, at the same time hoisting his Minnesota Twins back into second place in the torrid American League competition with a 4-2 victory over Los Angeles.

The Twins now are a half game ahead of Cleveland and only 10 percentage points back of the first place New York Yankees.

ALLISON'S 390-foot effort came after Ryne Duren had taken over mound chores from Dean Chance. Chance, just fished for too much night life, had seven good innings and left the contest with the Angels out front 2-1.

Rich Rollins, first man up in the Twins' eighth, drew a walk and Duren then struck out Harmon Killebrew and Don Mincher before Allison found the ball he wanted.

The Twins grabbed an insurance tally in the ninth when Zoilo Versalles doubled, went to third on a sacrifice and scored on a fly by Rollins. Leon Wagner dropped the ball but recovered in time to throw to second and force Lenny Green, who had been hit by a pitch, for the third out.

Minnesota got its first counter in the first inning off Chance with doubles by Green and Rollins. But the Angels came back for two runs in the second on a single by Lee Thomas, a Bob Rodgers double, and then another single by Felix Torres.

Right-hander Ray Moore, who relieved Twin starter Jack Kralick, shut out the Angels the last three innings for fourth mound victory in five starts. Duren (2-6) was tagged with the loss.

The Minnesota sends Jim Kaal (5-4) to the hill this afternoon against Bo Belinsky (6-2) in the series.

Belinsky, involved with Chance in the night life ruckus, also was fined but Angel manager Bill Rigeney would not reveal how much either was taxed.

"This club is a lot like the Angels," said Twins' manager Sam Mele after the Wednesday night victory.

"Our boys like to play ball and they just don't give up. We've lost the first game in a number of series and come back to win the next two. It's happened maybe five or six times. This club bounces back."

The Twins lost their series opener here Tuesday night 7-5 and had to come back to win Wednesday night.

Allison's homer, his fifth of the season, was his first ever off Duren. In fact, he said he couldn't recall getting a hit off Duren before. It was the first homer allowed by Duren this season.

"This Moore has been great in relief," Mele said. "And Stigman and Stange have been pretty good too."

"Kralick hasn't done as well as he should as a starter and Jim Kaal is just coming around. Camilo Pascual has been about our only consistent starter."

Mele said Vic Power is still suffering from a pulled side muscle and there's no telling when the first baseman will be able to play again.

Meet Westby Here Tonight

Winona's American Legion team, which grabbed a 9-1 victory over New Albin at Gabrych Park Wednesday night behind the one-hit pitching of Russ Hassinger, will go against Westby in another Minnesota-Wisconsin League contest here at 8 o'clock tonight.

Cliff Warnken will be on the mound for Winona with Jim Gaun who should be early relief duty, should it be necessary, and Larry Modjeski late-inning relief.

Tribe Splits With Nats; Yankees Idle

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Cleveland slid back into third place in the torrid American League race Wednesday night while New York, rained out against Detroit, hung on to first by 10 percentage points over the Minnesota Twins.

Cleveland split with Washington, winning the second game 4-1 after dropping the 4-1 opener.

Dick Donovan ran his record to 9-2 with a six-hitter for Cleveland in the second game in Washington, backed by John Romano's three-run homer in the fourth inning. The Senators won their fifth in a row in the opener as Claude Osteen and Steve Hamilton collaborated to hold the Indians to four hits.

Pedro Ramos lost the first game and Dave Stenhouse was the loser in the second.

Schwall showed the form that made him a 15-game winner and AL rookie of the year last season, handuffing the Orioles in the wind and drizzle at Boston's Fenway Park. Boston collected six of its eight hits and all four of its runs against Chuck Estrada, now 3-8.

U.S. OPEN STARTS Player One Shy Of Tough Goal

OAKMONT, Pa. (AP) — Arnold Palmer, bold and confident, is a 5-12 favorite in the 62nd U.S. Open golf championship beginning today but no one will be trying harder to win than Gary Player.

"When I started out as a professional golfer I set as my goal winning the British Open, and you know Masters and Open championships," the South African said today while awaiting the first round over the rain-softened Oakmont Country Club course.

"If and when I win the U.S. Open, I'll feel I've achieved what I set out to do."

Player, now 26, achieved his first major championship — the British Open — in 1959. He won the Masters championship at Augusta in 1961, so he has stepped three U.S. Open—ahead of him. Work-
